Dear Ms Thompson

Publication of local plan sites document and policies map consultation

Thank you for consulting us on the publication stage of your local plan sites document and policies map.

We are pleased to see that our previous comments have been addressed. As such, insofar as those matters within our remit are concerned, we consider the document to be legally compliant and sound. We also believe that it complies with the duty to co-operate

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely
